JENNIFER
Actually, the families of the girls
asked to speak to our team leader.

MORGAN
Rossi, you take the crime scene solo.

ROSSI
Yep.

MORGAN
JJ you're with me. Hotch and Reid, go over John O'Heron's life. See if anything points to a personal motive.

OFF MORGAN: About to step into the public as team leader.

"Detective Brantley"

CUT TO:

17 INT. OKLAHOMA CITY PD - DAY (D3) 17

It's rustic here. A cabin/lodge type feel to the building.
There are three mounted animal busts on the walls. Decorative hunting rifles, the bulletin board has announcements for shooting contests and pancake fund raisers. A very southern feel.

Hotch and Reid meet Detective AL BRANTLEY, late 30's.
Handshakes around.

START → DETECTIVE BRANTLEY
Al Brantley. Appreciate ya'll coming.

HOTCH Agents Hotchner and Reid. You'll meet the rest of the team later.

He shows them a map. Two pins mark the murder sites.

DETECTIVE BRANTLEY
(re: map)
Here's where the first body was found, just outside of town. Last night's murders here, in town.
'Bout 22 miles a part.

REID
That's odd.

DETECTIVE BRANTLEY

What?

HOTCH

Serial killers usually have a smaller kill zone.

Reid's phone rings. He answers, puts it on speaker.

REID

You're on speaker, Garcia.

INTERCUT WITH:

18 INT. BAU/HIGH TECH ROOM - DAY (D3) 18

Garcia in front of her monitors. She's holding a pen with a kitten's face on the end.

GARCIA

If beauty is in the eye of the beholder, my eyes are beholden to your beauty.

DETECTIVE BRANTLEY

She works with you guys?

GARCIA

I hear you're looking for recently released mental patients with an eye-gouging history. ~~Let me tell you how weird it is to write the search parameters on this one. Mental history cross reference with enucleator, eye injury, eye-gouging, etc. No bingo for Okie city residents.~~

HOTCH

Any other recent records involving assaults on eyes?

GARCIA

One nine months ago, domestic abuse case. But the creep's in jail.

HOTCH

We'll call you later.

GARCIA

10-4 breaker breaker.

BACK TO HOTCH, REID, and DETECTIVE BRANTLEY

CONTINUE →

DETECTIVE BRANTLEY

So you think he's fresh out of an asylum?

HOTCH

If not, he's been kept somewhere, and is now free.

DETECTIVE BRANTLEY

We've seen eye injuries before in bar brawls, sexual assaults, but nothing like this. What the hell's he doing with the eyes?

HOTCH

He could be collecting them as a trophy of some sort.

REID

But the trophy wouldn't last long.
 Eyes are 80% vitreous humor which is basically water. They would begin to get cloudy and wilt within hours.

DETECTIVE BRANTLEY

Any other theories?

REID

There have been some cases where immediately after enucleation, mental patients have consumed the eyes.

DETECTIVE BRANTLEY

Are you serious?

REID

Afraid so.

Off Brantley's disgust...
