COACH BENNETT
She's really doing great.
Definitely one of our most enthusiastic swimmers.

LUKE
Yeah, she really seems to love it.

COACH BENNETT
Good natural technique. Does she get that from you?

LUKE
Oh, no. Not me. I don't really know how to swim.

COACH BENNETT Seriously?

LUKE
Yeah, I mean, I guess I can doggy-paddle my way to shore in a pinch, but, I never really learned, you know, formally.

COACH BENNETT
(turning serious)
Luke, that's not good.

LUKE
(trying to lighten things up)
Well, I'm pretty good on land, though.

COACH BENNETT
(the seriousness continues)
You need to be certified. You take April to pools, lakes, the ocean.

LUKE
Uh, yeah. ~~_____~~

COACH BENNETT
Even the best swimmers get into trouble sometimes. It's very important for the safety of not only April, but any other children in your care, that you be a sound swimmer and certified in basic water safety.

LUKE

Oh, well, huh -- I never really thought of it.

COACH BENNETT

(done deal)

No worries. I teach an adult swim class, Saturday mornings for an hour and a half. It's an eight-week course. In fact, I just started a new round of classes last week, so if you come this Saturday, you'll really not have missed much at all.

LUKE

Oh... I don't know...

COACH BENNETT

Luke, this is not something you should wait on.

LUKE

Well, okay. Yeah. I guess I could do that.

COACH BENNETT

Great.
